Transition Monitoring Team

The Transition Monitoring Team is made up of 20 members of this congregation who are listening to the thoughts, feelings, questions, concerns, fears, and hopes of others during this time.

We had our first meeting February 15. I appreciate the way the group had prepared for the meeting and participated in the discussion. They reported what they had heard about the transition and expressed their own thoughts and feelings. We talked about “mustard seeds” we gained from the first chapter of Transitions by William Bridges.

The members of this team are: Elbert Ashworth, Dana Bowman, Eric Bowman, Pat Burwell, Tucker Cowden, Bob Dillon, Ruth Dillon, Barry Duffield, Stacy Ferrell, Joanne Howe, Penny Kester, Jack Long, Rosa Long, Jim Lowe, Charly Lyons, Jenny Slaughter, Owen Slaughter, Beth Warrington, Thomas Warrington, and Randy Williams.

Hendersonville Self-Study

The self-study is now ready. Please complete one for each member. There are questions about demographics, convictions, suggestions for improvement or lack of need for improvement in several areas, and what you think about the qualities needed in our next preacher. I appreciate Jason Griffin for spending many hours preparing this on the web for our use.

Each person who attends this congregation is invited and encouraged to participate. There is a link on the church web site. We will be glad to email you a link if you have trouble with that. There are paper copies available for those who prefer to do this.

This will be helpful to the elders in writing a profile for the next preacher. It will be helpful for the men considering and being considered, to determine their fit with this congregation.

If you have questions, please contact me.

Girls Day Out was a big hit with all of the 4-year-old-grade 5 girls and their mothers last Saturday! They enjoyed a day of fun by getting their nails and makeup done, shopping for candy, jewelry, accessories, making crafts, getting a picture together, and a devotional by a very special guest. We would like to say a big thank you to Kim Bryant and Dana Craighead, who co-chaired this event, and to Penny “Montana” Kester for helping the girls see that inner beauty is what God looks at.

Transition Update

We are ready to begin our Self-Study. It will help us evaluate where we are as a church. The cumulative report will help prospective preachers evaluate their fit with Hendersonville. The self-survey link is up and working through our church web site www.hendcoc.com. You may go online and complete the survey at your earliest convenience, and paper copies are available for those that choose to not go online.

We would like every member of every family to participate individually. Each person has characteristics, thoughts, and opinions that are different and important. It is important to answer all questions. Each question is designed to describe some aspect of this congregation. It will be combined with all others to see our likes and dislikes, strengths and weaknesses, preferences, and opportunities for growth individually and as a congregation.

If there is a question that you do not want to answer, there is a “Choose Not to Answer” option. Please avoid using this undecided choice unless it is your only choice. Using “Choose Not to Answer” many times skews the results. Your thoughts are very important! The survey is completely anonymous and confidential. Therefore, do not sign the self-survey. We want a picture of the demographics and thinking of this congregation. If you have something that you would like to say personally, please contact any elder.

Thank you in advance for your participation. Please continue to pray for this church and the men who will be considered as the next preacher in Hendersonville. This is a great and important time in our history. With your help and God's abundant blessings, we will continue to grow and to serve this community and the world.

If you have a special prayer request, attend our small group prayer session each Sunday morning at 8:45 in the Library, just before 9 a.m. Sunday Bible classes.
