Announcements

We are trying to eliminate as many public announcements as possible in the Sunday worship service. Please submit announcements for publication to the church office. The deadline is Tuesday afternoon for the Wednesday night News & Notes and Thursday at noon for the Sunday worship guide. Any prayer requests for hospitalization or deaths of members or their immediate family occurring after the deadline, can be given to the elder standing by the stage before worship services begins on Sunday.

An Opportunity to Serve

If you would like to help build PowerPoint presentations used during services, your help is needed! Experienced PowerPoint users who are willing to help, please contact Karl Wagnon at 824-6047.

Mothers

“Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her.” (Proverbs 31:28)

We leave traces of ourselves wherever we go, on whatever we touch. - Lewis Thomas

God pardons like a mother, who kisses the offense into everlasting forgetfulness. - Unknown

A mother's children are portraits of herself. - Unknown
 Rejecting things because they are old-fashioned would rule out the sun and the moon and a mother's love. - Anonymous

There is no such thing as a non-working mother.

- Hester Mundis

The best thing mothers can spend on their children is time, not money. - Anonymous

A mother understands what a child does not say.
 - Ancient Proverb

“A mother is the one through whom God whispers love to his little children. A mother is God's love in action. A mother is the one who is still there when everyone else has deserted you. Your mother's quiet smile is like an a cappella sunrise in your heart. A mom's gift is always the best because it's wrapped in love and tied up with heartstrings. The father is the head of the home, but the mother is the heart of the home. Houses are made of wood and stone, but only love can make a home. Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.

A mother is a mender. She mends socks, clothes and broken dolls. She mends furniture, clocks and Venetian blinds. Sometimes she fixes broken bike chains and other things that “come loose” in life. But most often she mends a child's broken heart or a daddy's broken spirit. She puts crushed feelings back together again and glues them tight with a drop of super-love. Sometimes she mends a little bird's broken wing or removes a grass burr from a puppy's foot. She is, in her own gentle way, a minister of mending, and she takes her ministry very seriously. She goes about her mending with words of kindness, acts of love, and the healing balm of compassion. She's a mender because she's a mother.”
